BECAUSE I CAN life

Yes! You Did It!

YAY! You did it. You got the guide that can help you create the 3 things that help sales skyrocket.

Scarcity. Urgency. Curiosity.

This guide will make it easier for you to come up with titles to use on Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, SnapChat, and/or in emails.

Each month will be loaded with 30+ that you can use. That means you could do a promotion each day! BUT, I'd discourage that. It brings buyers fatigue. Have you ever noticed Nordstrom only holds 2 big sales a year? THEY CRUSH IT. I'm not saying do a promotion twice a year. You are not Nordstroms (yet). I have one ecommerce site that can handle 2-3 promotions a month. I have another that likes them every other month. Test to see what your audience likes. They'll let you know by buying from you. It's simple like that.

Now, before we get into things...I like to over deliver. I hope that's okay with you.

I've included a bonus section that you'll find up next. These are tricks and tips that work all year long. They have been tested by...ME! For over 8 years I've been sending emails and have learned a few things from the millions of emails that have gone out on a monthly basis. I know. It's a lot. BUT it's worked.

Bonus Section

Here are some general tips that can help you get more click, more excitement, and help you bump up your sales numbers.

- 1. Use their name. Email platforms have made it easy for that to happen. For my emails, if I type in #NAME# in where I want my reader's names it magically appears. Note: You must get the exact code that your email provider requires. Once I sent out #name#...lower caps and that didn't trigger the system and a bunch of #name# emails went out. Blah. Chat with your email providers customer service and they can give it to you.
- 2. Appreciation goes a long way. Use the word "Thanks" or "Thank you". I personally feel that word is underused in this world. People love to feel appreciated and a simple word can make or break that connection.

PS. Have I told you thank you for getting this ebook on titles. I hope to rock your world with it:).

PSS. Don't be fake about it either. I was truly thankful that you trusted me to give you this crazy good information.

- 3. Use Percentages. Don't be shy. Shirts on Sale vs 75% off All Shirts. The first one I'd ignore. People need a reason to stop what they are doing and focus on you. Make it worth it for them.
- 4. Urgency. I've found my sweet spot to be 48-hour sales. I've tried a bunch of times and this one converts the best.
- 5. Add 'you' or 'your' to your emails. You Deserve More - More Than 50% off or Your order has shipped.
- 6. Use emojis. You know picture books and how they draw in kids...well emojis draw adults in too. We are visual beings. Add the visuals. I'm guessing that the heart on this page made you read this section.
